

Rain

I've worn tracks in the ground
From following you around
I've saved your letters,
Music without sound.
I've got photographs,
Memories on the walls,
There's a light by the 'phone
Where I waited for you to call
I've found love is like the rain,
With it can come pain.
But, never knowing it can leave you
Dry inside.
After a storm
There's a rainbow in my eyes.
Pretty colors
Of the rainbow in my eyes.
Memories are everywhere,
Reminders here and there.
Memories like raindrops
That cling to your hair
I look at your nightstand
Everything is gone.
We never stopped to wonder
Where we went wrong.
I've found tears are like the rain,
With them can come pain.
But, never knowing them can leave you
Dry inside.
After a storm
There's a rainbow in my eyes
All the colors
Of the rainbow in my eyes
